Kissinger Confers With Erhard in Bonn

Reuters

BONN, Jan. 28—Prof. Henry S. Kissinger, American defense expert and former adviser to President Kennedy, today held private talks with West German Chancellor Erhard, a government spokesman said.

No details of the talks were made known. Chancellery spokesman said the German-born professor of Harvard University's faculty of international affairs was on a private tour through Europe.